

Adult Program Trip

Kernersville, NC

Monday, June 18, 2018

Are you fascinated by unusual architecture with a unique story behind it? Then you will want to be on this trip. Come with us to Kernersville, NC. We will be leaving from Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 9:30am.

Join us as we travel to Kernersville, NC. Our first stop will be for lunch, on your own ($5.00—$12.00), at Prissy Polly's Pig Pickin' Barbeque known for serving both Lexington style and eastern style BBQ. Following lunch we have a guided tour of the strangest home in America, Körner's Folly. It is an architectural wonder and home of the artist and designer Jule Gilmer Körner, a grandson of Joseph Kerner, the town's namesake. Built in 1880, the house originally served to display Körner's interior design portfolio. We will have a guided tour of the 22 room house museum that spreads across 3 stories and 7 levels, in which no two doorways or windows are exactly alike and there are 15 decorated fireplaces. The third floor billiards room was turned into a theater space that is adorned with cupid-themed murals painted by Caesar Milch. It is believed Cupid's Park Theater was the first private little theater in America. The home is filled with unique original furnishings and artwork, cast-plaster details, carved woodwork, and elaborate hand laid tile. There are many steep and narrow stairs for you to navigate. You will be walking and standing for the approximately one hour tour. The site is not handicap accessible and does not accommodate walkers. The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 4:30pm.
